A little guidance. A lot of heart.

Your guide to our care, choices and prices.

INDEPENDENT FUNERAL CARE / SOUTHPORT

WELCOME TO HOPE

Our family, looking after yours.

You do not need to have all the answers.

When someone you love dies, even small decisions can feel difficult. This guide gives you space to explore the choices and costs in your own time.

Claire, Wendy and the Hope team are here to listen, explain things gently and help you find a farewell that feels right for your family. You can start with a question, a memory, or simply a phone call.

01704 616 448 | Here for you, day and night.

Clear information. Room to decide.

A funeral is personal. Understanding how its cost is made up can help you choose the details that matter to you.

Our care and services

The professional support, arrangements and care provided by our funeral directors.

Third-party costs

Charges from others, such as a crematorium, cemetery or the person leading the service.

Personal touches

Flowers, printed tributes, transport and other choices that make a goodbye feel individual.

A goodbye that feels right for you.

The options below are reproduced from our published 2026 price list. Please ask us to confirm the arrangements and inclusions for your chosen option.

Direct cremation

£995

A non-attended service. All professional and administration charges are included, with no hidden costs.

Direct cremation upgrade

£1,500

Includes the direct cremation option plus a bespoke coffin, chapel visit within office hours, a recording of the procession if desired, a floral tribute and an online obituary.

Service at Hope Funeral Care

£1,750

An intimate service in the days before the direct cremation, in our chapel seating up to 30 people. A 30-minute service can be led by an officiant, with music or a live vocalist.

Bespoke funerals and celebrations of life Upon request

A farewell shaped entirely around the life you are remembering. We will prepare a personal quote for your chosen arrangements.

The published list does not specify how the chapel service price combines with other options. Please speak with us for a personalised total.
